Date: Tuesday, 27th February 2018.
Period	Activities	Place
7:00 – 15:00	Today it has started to snow. The temperature is very low. The director of the school M. Quinn has picked us up with his car at our hotel. Today we are going to visit another center that runs in the suburbs of Birmingham, Saint John Wall Catholic School. It is a smaller educational center than the one in Redditch. It has less facilities, and the students are poorer. It has especially black and bangladeshi students who wear turbans of different types on their heads. The discipline and security in the center is much rigid, perhaps because of the existence of behavioral problems. We have gone to take a look at different classrooms and workshops, and to some exam like Spanish. The exams are monitored by the called exam officers. We have also visited an integration classroom where a kind of tutor corrects the behavior or helps students with problems. Finally, we have attended a meeting with Ms. Katheleen Marston, head of the school.	West Bromwich (Birmingham).

15:00 – 21:00	We have visited the center of Birmingham, visiting the following places and monuments: Jewelry quarter, jewelry museum, chamberlain's clock, historic cemetery, ballpoint pen museum, Birmingham library, canals, Birmingham art gallery, Saint Philip's Cathedral and Ringbull. Return to Redditch by train.	Birmingham.
